- For this course, the workload in combination with the nature of the material was way too much to be completed well in the time given.
- it is good

- More explanation and detailed problems as examples would have been helpful. a lot of examples that were used to demonstrate problems were very simple and then once we went to the quizzes and exams, extra steps were needed to solve the problems which is where i got lost
- Good

Additional comments about technology. Suggestions for improvement:

- YouTube cannot use in China, so if we have another way to watch video is better.
